Florence, April 18.

THE Grand Duke has promoted three Colonels of his Troops to the Rank of General Officers, viz. the Marquis Caponi, Sign. Medici and Dotti. An Express from the Governour of Pietra Santra is arrived here, with News, that an Officer and 30 German Grenadiers have entered the Marquisate of Trechieto, situated in the Lunegiana, of which they took Possession, under Pretext that the Marquis of that Name is the last of the Family of Mala-Spina; this News has given the Grand Duke the more Concern, because it is a Fief which his Highness lays Claim to; and has therefore dispatched an Express to his Minister at the Imperial Court, with Orders to present Complaints on this Head to the Emperour.

Cambray, May 4. The Chevalier Delaval, sent by the Great Master of the Order of Knights of Malta to reside here during the Congress, arrived the 26th past. Some of the Lord Whitworth's Servants are come hither, in order to make the necessary Preparations against his Excellency's Arrival.

Paris, May 6. Orders having been lately given for collecting at the Gates of Paris, the ancient Duties on Goods brought into this City, which have been for some time abolished; the Parliament of Paris did a few Days ago take into Consideration, whether they should make Remonstrances to the King against those Orders, or whether they should nominate some of their Body to examine into the Matter and make Report to them: The latter was carried by a Majority of Votes, and some Counsellours were named accordingly, who having drawn up their Report, offered it to the Parliament on the 4th Instant, but the reading of it was put off till To-morrow; when the Parliament will proceed to a Decision, as to the Regularity of the Form that has been used in the re-establishing of those Duties, and as to the Justice and Necessity of collecting them at this Time. The Party in the Parliament, who in the first Debate carried the Question against the making any Remonstrances, will probably carry the Question To-morrow in a Manner agreeable to the Court.

The true London Focus for Shoes, being an unparallel'd Composition of the most pure and rich Foreign Black, &c. cast into large Rolls, glass'd as fine as Glass, and is certainly the most artificial, serviceable, and excellent Thing in the World for the Intent, having gained a general Applause amongst the Lords and Gentry of Great Britain, &c. for near 20 Years; the Title, Form, and way of Use, being all new, and of our own Invention. It instantly makes the Shoes of a glorious fine Black, beautifies them to Admiration, cauterizes the Strieth Shoes to wear with Delight and Ease, being exceeding comfortable to tender and gouty Feet, freeing them of all Pains, Corns, Smellings, &c. and preserves the Leather from cracking and rotting to the very last.
